We design during the ensuing year to keep constantly on hand a better assortment of goods than we ever have had, which we intend to sell at such prices as will satisfy our friends and the public generally, that it will be to their interest to adopt this mode of trade.

THE NEW GENESEE FARMER.

The cheapest Agricultural Paper in the Union—Only Fifty Cents a year, (in advance.) Sixteen large pages monthly, with cuts. J. J. THOMAS & M. B. BATEHAM, Editors. DAVID THOMAS and others, assistants. One Hundred Correspondents.

THE flattering encouragement which the New Genesee Farmer has received during the past year, has convinced the proprietors that the paper can be sustained in its native soil, and at its economical price; and while they express their gratitude for the assistance they have thus far received, they would now, with renewed confidence, appeal to the friends of Agriculture in behalf of the Second Volume. The paper is so well known, and so highly approved, that it is unnecessary to speak of its character, further than to say, that it will not suffer by a comparison with any other paper of the kind in the United States. Each successive number has shown an increase of talent and correspondents. It has received during the past year, original communications from ONE HUNDRED WRITERS, most of whom are well known practical Farmers. It also contains the most useful selections from other Agricultural journals, reports of the Markets, &c.

The object of the New Genesee Farmer is to advance the great interests of Agriculture and Horticulture—to benefit the community in general, and Farmers in particular. Experience proves that it is well calculated to promote this object; and therefore it is the duty of every friend of improvement to extend its circulation, in order that its influence may be felt throughout the Agricultural community.

The friends of Agricultural Societies should especially encourage this paper; for unless farmers read on the subject, and get their minds interested in their profession, they will not act efficiently for its advancement. The Societies formed last year in western New York, and their fine exhibitions, have already given a new impulse to the cause in this section of country; and it is confidently expected that much more will be done the coming season.

The Second Volume commenced January 1st, 1841.

All Postmasters are requested to act as Agents, and remit money to the publishers. Address, BATEHAM & CROSMAN, Feb. 3 Rochester, N. Y.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

THE undersigned hopes that all persons indebted to the office of the Salt River Journal, for SUBSCRIPTION, ADVERTISING, or JOB WORK, will speedily pay up their accounts. The amounts due are scattered over a number of counties, and the cost of collection, if he is compelled to call upon each individual, would in many cases, exceed the sums collected. Those indebted to the office can remit to us, through the Postmasters, and thus save us both trouble and expense, and at the same time do us a great favor. We are in want of money, and we must have it, and it must come from those for whom we have been laboring for the last two years.

A NEW VOLUME.

JANUARY, 1842.

GRAHAM'S LADY'S & GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE.

With more Splendid Embellishments than any other Magazine in the Union.

EDITED BY

GEORGE R. GRAHAM, MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, C. J. PETERSON, MRS. EMMA C. EMBURY, MISS E. LESLIE, EDGAR A. POE.

MISS E. LESLIE, Permanent and Regular Contributor.

THEODORE S. FAY, Permanent and Regular Contributor.

GEORGE P. MORRIS, Permanent and Regular Contributor.

This work devoted to both sexes, will open a New Volume with the number for January, 1842, with an array of Contributors of talent and fame, which no periodical in the country can boast of or pretend to rival.

The volume will be opened with a new and beautiful type the finest white paper, and with the first of a

New Series of Embellishments, Unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine.

The style of elegance, the beauty and finish the illustrations, and the extensive improvements which will be made in its typographical appearance, and above all, the tone of its literary department given it by the brilliant array of its Contributors, whose articles will enrich the pages of each number, will give it a character above any Magazine in the Union.

The Magazine has become the standard of taste in matters of embellishment, and has led the way in every thing really beautiful published in the Magazine of last year. The voice of the public press, while it places the work at the is unanimous in the announcement, that no work ever started in the country has been so elegantly embellished, or has so rapidly increased. For the new volume, the most extensive arrangements have been made, with the most distinguished artists in the country, for a supply of elegant embellishments of all sorts.

Our Beautiful Mezzotint Engravings

It affords us much satisfaction to be able to state that we have made arrangements with Mr. SARTAIN, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributed so much to the beauty of the magazine, by which we secure his splendid mezzotints for this work alone. No other magazine of this kind can have so many without permission from us.

In addition to these, we have secured the burin of another talented mezzotint engraver—H. S. SADD, Esq. of New York—that there may be no disappointment as to number or regularity. These will be equal to any thing published, so that we are able confidently to promise

A Mezzotint in Each Number.

These beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine, in every number, so that we shall be able to distance any thing like competition on this ground. These plates are the most expensive that can be got up for a magazine of large circulation, in consequence of the great price of printing—being more than double that of line engravings—and the necessity of reduplicating the plates; our edition already rendering it necessary that two or three plates of the same subject must be prepared for every number in which they are used. We now print an addition greater than that of any contemporary for the last year, and confidently assert that at the same rate of increase we shall issue, in 1842, an edition of not less than

35,000 COPIES MONTHLY,

and shall soon have an edition unequalled in the history of magazine publishing.

Our Splendid Steel Engravings.

We have also entered into a distinct and permanent arrangement with Rawdon, Wright, Hatchard, Smillie, and with A. L. DICK, Esq. of New York, for a series of splendid engravings, to be got up in a style unsurpassed by any that have ever been done in this country. The wide spread fame of this artist is a sufficient guarantee of the character of the work we shall receive from their hands. So that with such an organization, we may safely defy competition in the way of embellishments, show the world in the way of liberal and judicious expenditure, and fix a new era in the history of magazine publishing in this country.

A PATTERN FOR OTHERS TO FOLLOW,

ELEGANT EMBOSSED WORK.

An agreement has been made with that meritorious and accomplished artist, F. Quarre, Esq., for a full supply of tasteful

EMBROIDERY, LACE-WORK, BIRDS, FLOWERS, and LANDSCAPES, COLORED IN THE MOST FINISHED AND ELEGANT STYLE.

This will form an expensive style, but popular and attractive feature in the work, and with the variety which will be thus introduced, will always be novel and pleasing.

Richly Colored Fashions.

In compliance with the almost unanimous wish of our lady subscribers, we shall furnish them with a beautiful and correct plate of FASHIONS, and shall also give the style for gentlemen, which has been decidedly popular with both sexes, and has rendered the work the TEXT BOOK OF FASHION, the Universal. These, however, shall in no wise interfere with the regular and choice engravings and music which accompany each number of the Magazine, as we shall not suffer ourselves to be surpassed in number or beauty of illustrations by any other work, but shall maintain the position we have assumed, of leading all others in the richness, beauty, excellence, and variety of Magazine embellishment.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER.

The reputation of the Magazine thus far, would be a sufficient guarantee for the future; but that it may be seen that nothing has been left undone to maintain every department of the work, and to elevate the literary, as well as the pictorial department, we beg leave to announce a host of talented and elegant American writers.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS.

In addition to the old contributors, whose names and articles have given a high celebrity to the Magazine, a number of new ones, it will be perceived, are added, of worth and note, so that we may fairly say that we have

The Strength of American Talent Enlisted in the Work.

Thos. S. Fay, Author of "Norman Leslie, the Connecticut Idler," &c.; Miss E. Leslie, Hon. Robert F. Canby, Esq.; Mrs. A. S. Stephens, Dr. Reynell Coates, Mrs. R. S. Nichols, Dr. J. Mitchell, Emma C. The series of the well known nautical papers entitled "Cruising in the Last War," and "The Reefer of '76," have had a run unequalled by any series published in any Magazine for years.—The author promises to open a new series of

TALES OF THE SEA.

And from his known abilities as a depicor of sea scenes and life, much may be relied upon from him in maintaining the popularity of the Magazine. Papers may be expected during the volume also, from the author of the well known articles entitled "The Log of Old Ironsides," beside a variety of choice articles in prose and verse, from various writers of celebrity, as Contributors to the prominent Magazines of the country.

STERLING CRITICISMS.

The critical department shall still form a distinctive character of the work, and is under the control of a gentleman of critical acumen and reputed long established, and held every where second to none for sagacity, and an honest, fearless independence.

The review of books may therefore be expected to be candid and entirely free from the inane puffing which marks the bookseller's hack; but shall be thoroughly impartial and severely just.

TIME OF PUBLICATION.

The work will be published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union.—The most distant subscribers will consequently receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia.

THE LOWEST TERMS.

The proprietor being more desirous of publishing the HANISOMEST and BEST, than the cheapest work in the Union, while at the same time he is anxious to bring it within the reach of all, offers the following as the LOWEST POSSIBLE TERMS at which he can afford the work in its elegant style for 1842.

PROSPECTUS

OF A
WEEKLY POLITICAL NEWSPAPER, CALLED

"THE RADICAL,"

Published in Bowling Green, Missouri.

The above will be the title of an old paper under a new name to be published in Bowling Green, Mo., by the undersigned. With the change of name there will be no change in the political course of the paper. "THE RADICAL" will pursue the same course as has heretofore been pursued by the "Salt River Journal." It will advocate a strict and rigid interpretation of the constitution as the best safeguard of the rights of the people and of the states, and as the only guarantee of the durability of our union. It will oppose the exercise of all doubtful powers by Congress, and as a necessary consequence will wage an uncompromising war against a National Bank, whatever name it may assume—against a protective tariff, as wrong in itself and dangerous to the harmony of the members of the National Confederacy—and against the attempt to bribe the indebted states into the support of the Federal Party by a distribution of the proceeds of the sales of the public lands among the states.

The undersigned are desirous to extend the circulation of the "RADICAL," and with this view no effort will be spared to render it acceptable to the Democracy of this portion of the State.—From them we have to look for much the larger proportion of our patronage, and we shall strive to make our sheet worthy of their support and of the great principles it advocates. The terms of subscription have been reduced so as to make it one of the cheapest papers in the State; and, if not the best, we intend that it shall be inferior to none in every thing that constitutes an able and interesting paper.

The first number of the "RADICAL" will be issued on Saturday, the 6th of November, on a sheet of a size of the "Journal;" but with considerable improvements. A large portion of it will be in smaller type—thereby adding to its appearance and to the quantity of reading matter.

The terms will be $2 to a club of 3 or more subscribers, paid in advance. $2.50 to a single subscriber, if paid within 6 months, and $3 if not paid till after that period.
